Coverage Report

January 14th to February 14th 2022

During the period, 69 publications related to the bilateral relationship between Mexico and the United States were compiled. 38 of the publications were made by think tanks in Mexico, while 31 publications were made by United States think tanks. The Consejo Mexicano de Asuntos Internacionales (COMEXI) was the center with the most publications related to the bilateral relationship with 26 publications, followed by the Mexico Institute and the Center for Binational Institutions (CBI) with 19 and 6 publications respectively.

Four main topics were discussed during the period. The most mentioned was Institutional Relationship, followed by security and governance, in respect to drugs and arms trafficking, energy, in relation to Mexico’s energy reform and John Kerry’s visit to Mexico, as well as challenges and opportunities in terms of immigration. Followed by international trade, democracy and Biden-Harris administration which celebrated its one-year anniversary. The topics of diplomacy, labor market, economy, and femicides were also mentioned. Finally, corruption, supply chains, COVID-19, demographics, and the United States - Mexico border were also discussed.
